

THE AMERICAN WAY

Jeanie Harrison for Home Room 402

Well Harrington I could probably sling a lot of bull, but since I am really sincere I'll confine my ideas to the straightforward and honest type. It surely is a lucky break for me to be able to call myself one of your friends. Say there I want you to know your folks rate A-1 with me too. Harrington, there's just one thing, I'm telling you from one day to the next I never know what I am going to be like. I never know what mood I'll be in or how different a guy I'll be, but I can rest assured that however I change, my desire to remain your friend and companion never changes. (There's one for your grand children). When I don't especially mean something or it is hard for me to get off my chest, it usually takes me quite a while to finish saying or writing it. Honestly, it is coming out of me now like water from a dam, when I tell you that to me you are one of the best friends a boy could ever have. You're a real sport for sticking by me in some of the spots I have been in.
(You know what I mean) Sometimes I wish I had all of your vitality, get up and go, and knock 'em come back and sometimes I don't. Anyway, there good things to have. Your gift of you is no slouch either (watch out Dorothy Thompson) Best wishes to a girl that's really got sumpin on the ball

Assembly Programs Interpret the American Way of Life

TO ACCOMMODATE the large student body of Central high school, general assembly programs are held twice a week, on Thursday and Friday.

The school assemblies in Central high school have been organized as a vital part of the school in order to educate students in the integrating knowledges, ideals, aspirations, and socially desirable attitudes of society. The definite purposes of the assemblies are to inspire and deepen student interests and appreciations; to correlate school and community interests; to encourage a spirit of patriotism, reverence and school loyalty; to create socially minded individuals; to encourage a spirit of cooperation and social sensitivity; and finally to obtain, through carefully planned, organized and directed programs, public enlightenment.

In the last decade at Central high school, assembly projects have not only made classroom work functional but have influenced profoundly the social philosophy and the social behavior of the student.

CLASSES

Classes

EACH YEAR Central progresses toward the ultimate aim of all high schools which is to teach students to stand on their own feet. Recognizing that the only way to accomplish this is through a democratic school system, Central has increased her democracy not only in the extra curricular activities, but also in the regular school curriculum. For although such extra curricular projects as the student government bodies and the high school Daze have for many years been directed by the students themselves, cooperation in the classroom has been slower in developing. But this year great strides have been made toward the realization of a cooperative teacher-pupil planning system, through the institution of the block system in the sophomore class.

In addition, a far greater effort is made today to offer the students those courses in which they are most interested, and from which they feel they will gain most.

It is true that unless a person is taught to think for himself, and then allowed to practice that knowledge, he cannot become a valuable American citizen. Central's administrators have recognized this fact, and have incorporated its practice into the organization of Central.

Senior Class

As is always the case, this year the members of the senior cabinet were the school's busiest people. After handling the publicity campaign for both senior plays, planning the class assemblies, directing the numerous senior activities, serving as a nucleus for all senior committees, and participating in an innumerable number of other school activities, you would expect them to appear haggard but they are not.

The Tom Tom goes to press too early to include pictures and, in some cases, names of late enrollments, or to take into account withdrawals. For various reasons approximately 115 Centralites who were enrolled in September will not graduate this spring.

Seniors at Central

If the class of '41 had any doubts at the beginning of the year, about having reached that exalted position of senior, they were soon dispersed. It was impossible to forget the fact even for a moment, with all of the special announcements for seniors on the bulletin, the senior tests, and the preparations for the final activities.

This has been a big year for Central's upperclassmen, and they proved themselves worthy of the responsibilities placed upon them, by taking the lead in such school activities as the S. A. S. G. convention, the student government, the school publications, and the annual Daze.

Although this group has always been proud of its class plays, the enthusiasm with which Jane Eyre and Charlie's Aunt were greeted this year, proved that they topped even the success of the sophomore play, The Little Clown, and the two junior plays, The Adorable Spendthrift, and Wings of the Morning which the class of '41 sponsored.

Few seniors are bold enough to admit they hate to leave, but they all have a sentimental look in their eyes when they pause to think of the good times they've had together for three years; and it's certain that the three class presidents, Larry, Carroll, and Bobb, will forever hold a soft spot in the hearts of the members of the class of '41.

Junior Class

Central's in-betweens were anything but that this year, for the vivacity with which they plugged their two hit plays, Adam and Eva, and Happy-Go-Lucky, gave them a high grade for enthusiasm. Much of the credit for this successful year for the juniors goes to its able cabinet, which, under the guidance of Gene Merrell, president, and with the assistance of Miss Lulu B. Beckington, sponsor, selected the two plays, planned the class assembly programs, and chose and directed class committees.

Besides its many other activities, the cabinet also sponsored a private contest to see who would tell the best jokes, Gene or Miss Beckington.

P.S.—Miss Beckington won.

New Doors Open to Juniors

When Centralites become members of the junior class they look forward to more elective subjects. To the required subjects of English, American history, and home living-physical education combination, juniors may add speech arts, advanced mathematics and commercial subjects, higher sciences, as chemistry and geology, and numerous other courses.

The opportunity for displaying more dramatic talent arises in the junior year of high school work, as members of the class present two class plays and participate in many speech arts plays. Every junior with originality has a chance to display his talent in planning and producing assembly programs.

Even though much time is spent on their school work, juniors take part in other school activities; they play an important role in such school organizations as Scalpers, Red Feathers, A Cappella, Courtesy Service Club, and Speakers Bureau.

Sophomore Class

Every year these sophomores get brighter. This year, under the leadership of the dynamic cabinet pictured above, they really kept the upperclassmen busy looking to their laurels. The owners of those bright looking faces above not only planned all of the class assemblies at the weekly cabinet meetings, but also chose the class play, Footloose, which, incidentally, was the laugh-hit of the season.

Under the capable guidance of Miss Gertrude Rector and her able assistants, Miss Lela Copeland and Miss Maude Lourey, the class has had a most successful year. Central seniors need not worry about the school falling to pieces after they leave with students like these ready to take over.

Assistant Football Coaches

Football

With a new high in school spirit and student support urging them on, Central's 1940 football squad ended the season with only a tie and a defeat to mar a perfect record.

Under the leadership of Jack Lairmore, captain and senior guard, the Braves scored 227 points as against 44 for opponents. Coach Leslie VanNoy was called into active service in the army early in September and his duties were taken over jointly by Melvin Riggs and Charles Nussbaum who handled them for the rest of the season.

Rex Peery assisted by coaching the B team after he joined the staff late in September.

Twenty-three boys were awarded letters for their efforts on the gridiron, and of this number, thirteen will return next year.

Wrestling

1941 marks the sixteenth consecutive year that Central's wrestling team has not lost a dual meet on its home mat, and the fourth consecutive season it has not been defeated.

Under the direction of the new coach, Rex Peery, and their captain, Frank Moskowitz, the Braves won the city mat title, the regional championship, and were runners-up in the state tournament.

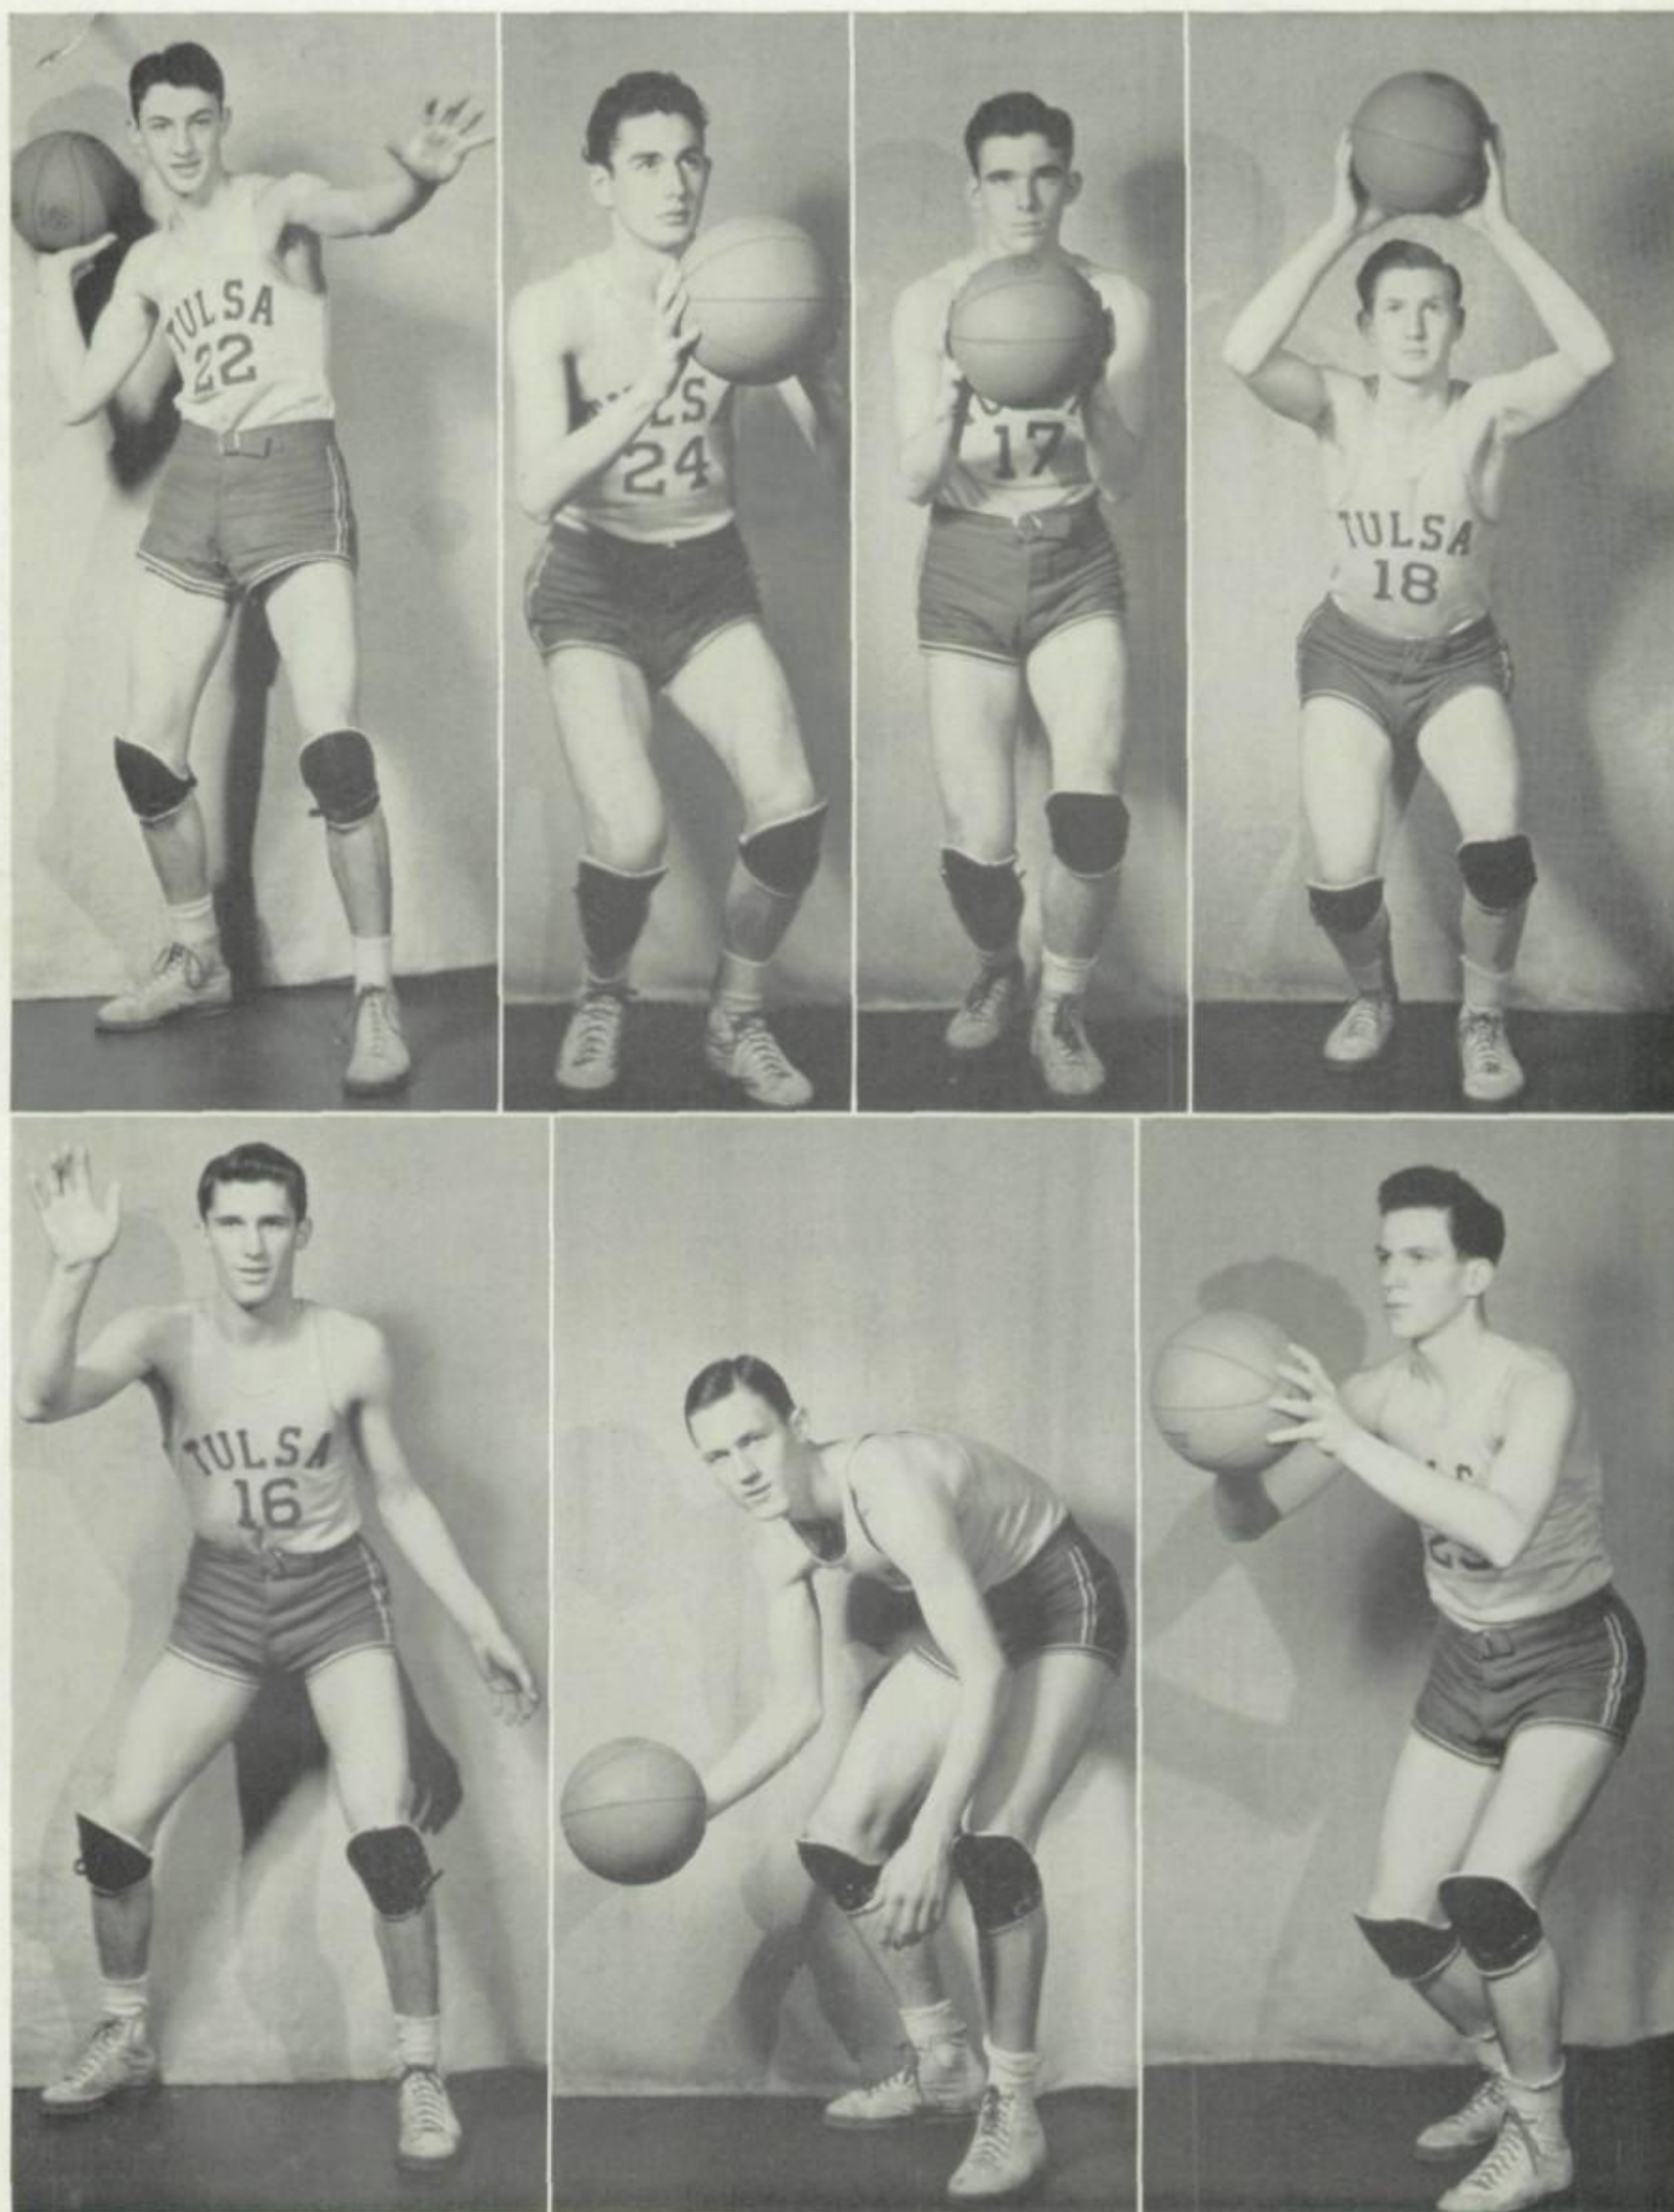

Individual honors were taken at the tournament by Louie Andrews, Bill Curtis, and Charles Freidl, who won state championships.

Of the twelve Central boys who received letters for their work in wrestling, three will return next year.

Softball

Though not faring so well as those in other athletic activities, participants in Central's newest sport, softball, continued to bring recognition to their school in finishing their second year of Oklahoma Six conference competition.

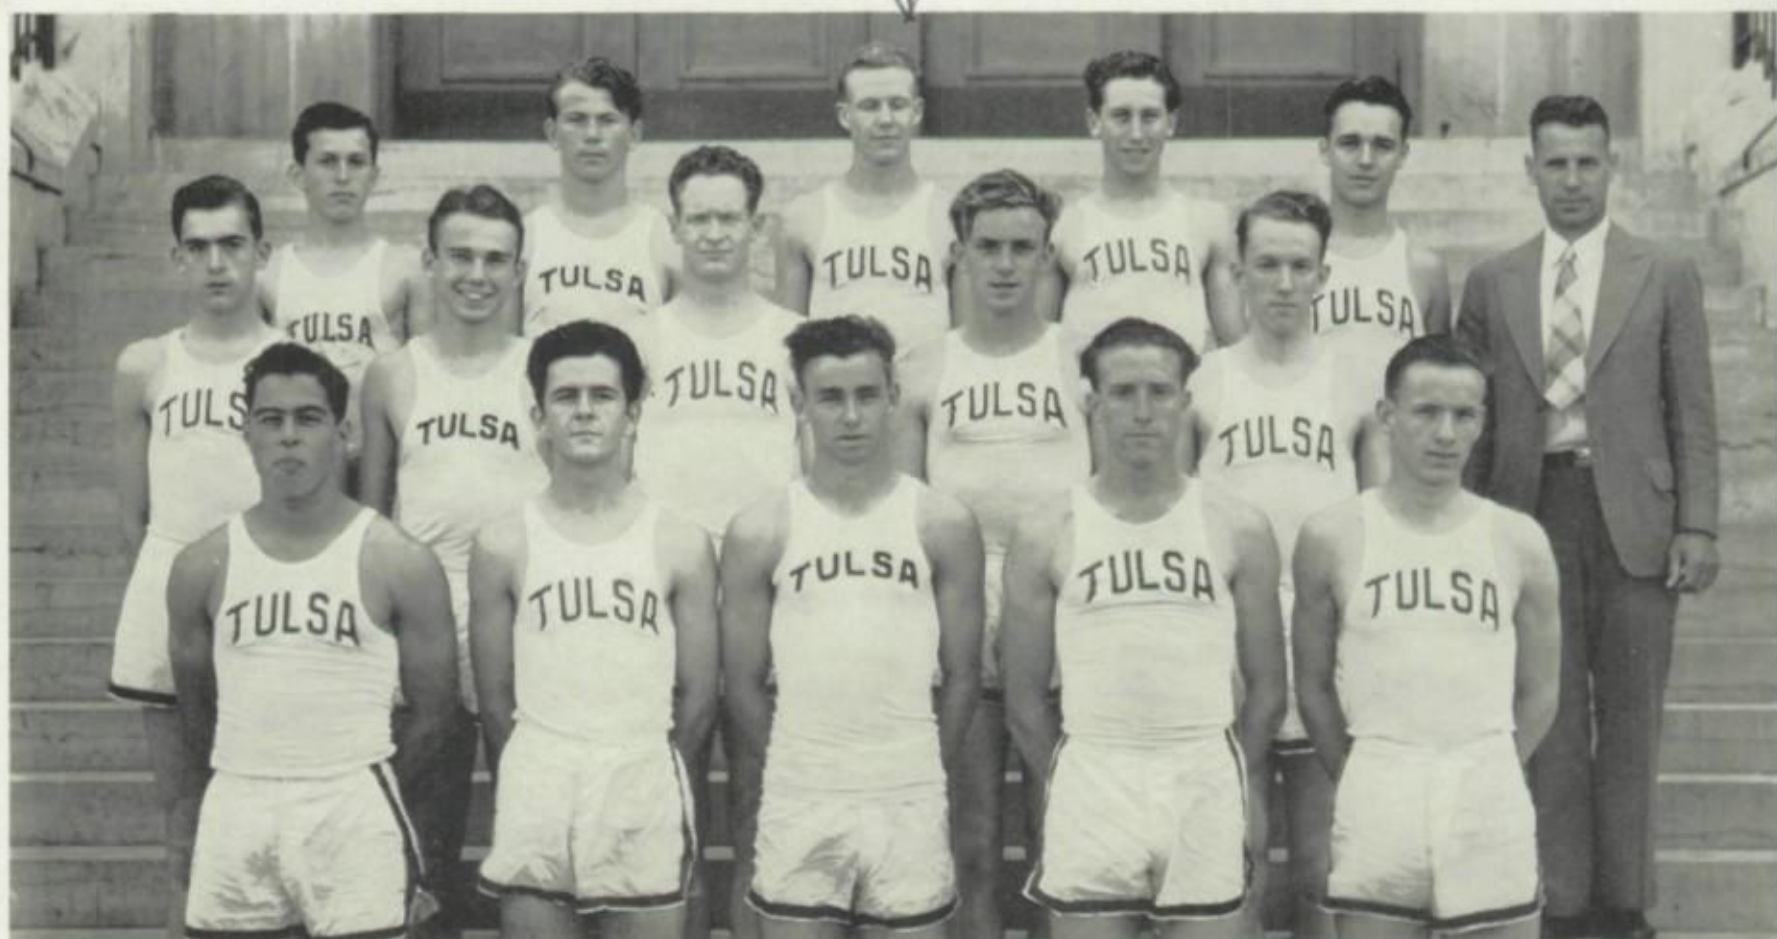

Under the captaincy of Art Ramage, and coached by Melvin Riggs, the team finished the 1940 season with a record of six victories and six defeats.

Eleven Braves were awarded letters in softball.

CROSS COUNTRY TRACK

Ed Perryman, Lee Murray, J. D. Rambo, Joe Letson, Earl Hanner, William C. Lantz, coach.

Cross Country Track

Under the direction of William C. Lantz, the 1940 cross country track team continued Central's excellent records in that field by carrying off, for the fourth consecutive year, the team trophy at the state meet held at the University of Oklahoma.

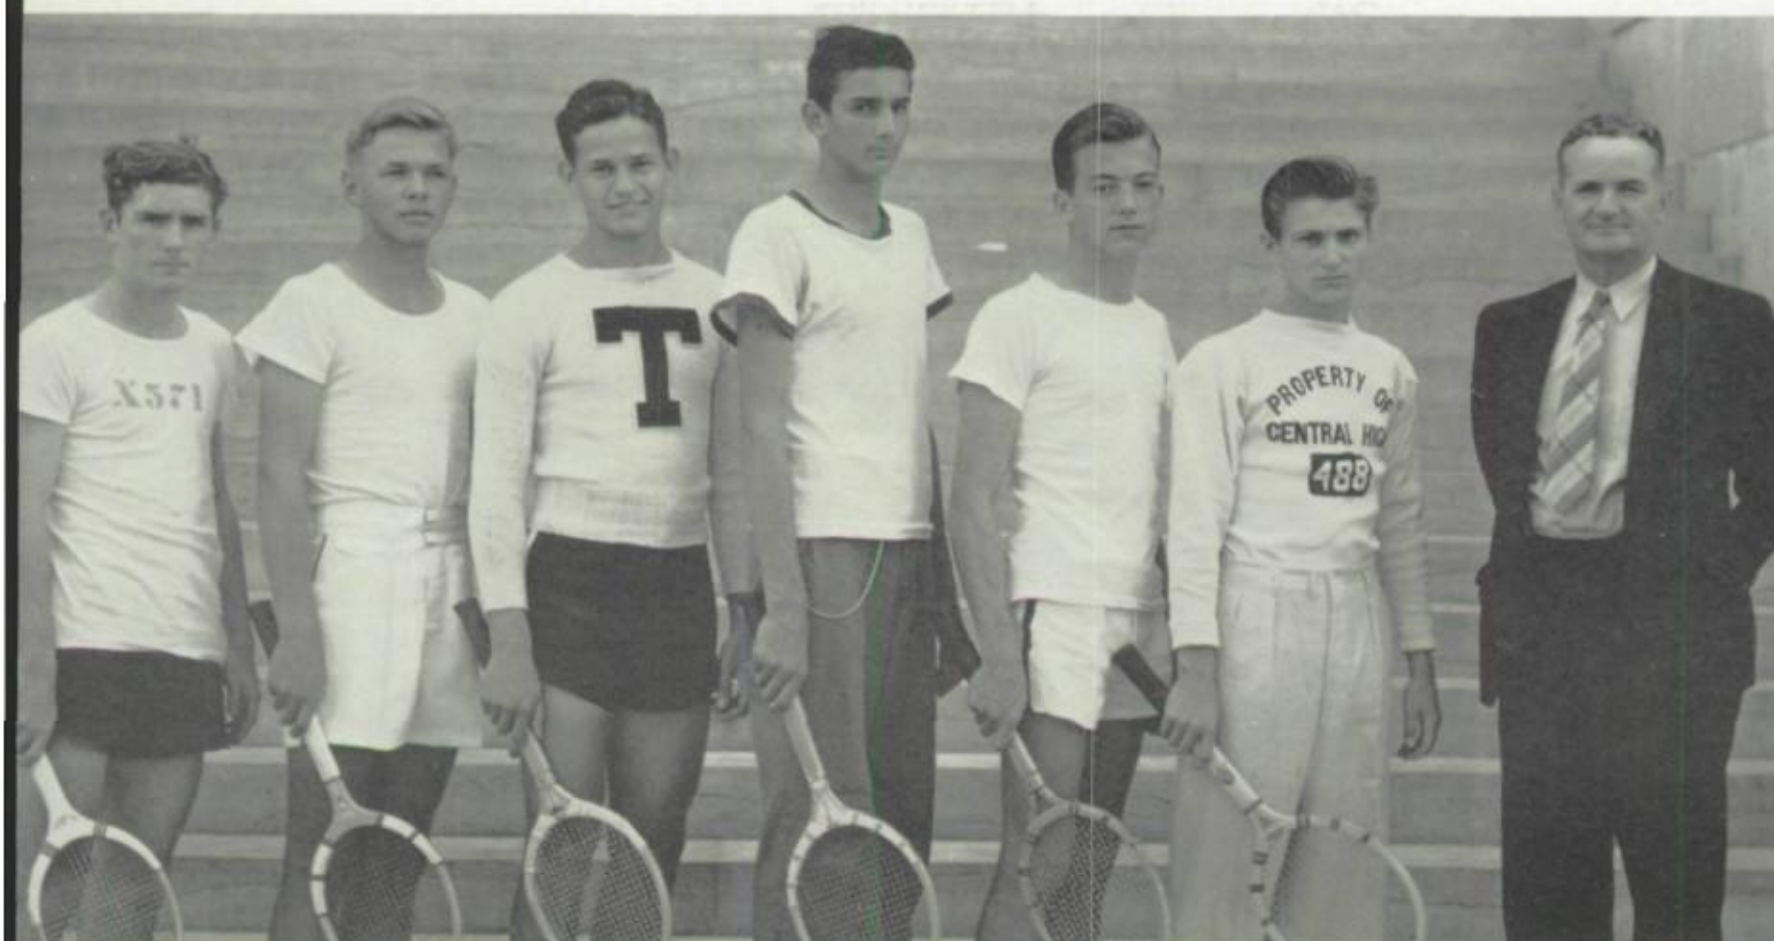

The Central squad had set a goal of having every member finish within the first ten at the state meet. This was achieved when Murray placed second, Hanner, third; Perryman, sixth; Letson, eighth; and Rambo, tenth in the meet.

Though their points did not count for the Braves, as a school may enter only five men, George Herod, placing thirteenth, and Jack Osborn, placing fourteenth, ran for the experience.

In addition to winning the state meet, the Braves defeated the Oklahoma City Classen team in a dual meet.

Of the five lettermen on this year's squad, one will return next year.

TENNIS

Eugene Small, Randall Clark, Lewis Hall, Burford Monnet, Bill Bates, Marvin Douglas, Art Griffith, coach.

Tennis

Undefeated in dual competition, the 1940 tennis team, under the coaching of Art Griffith, brought even more honors to Central.

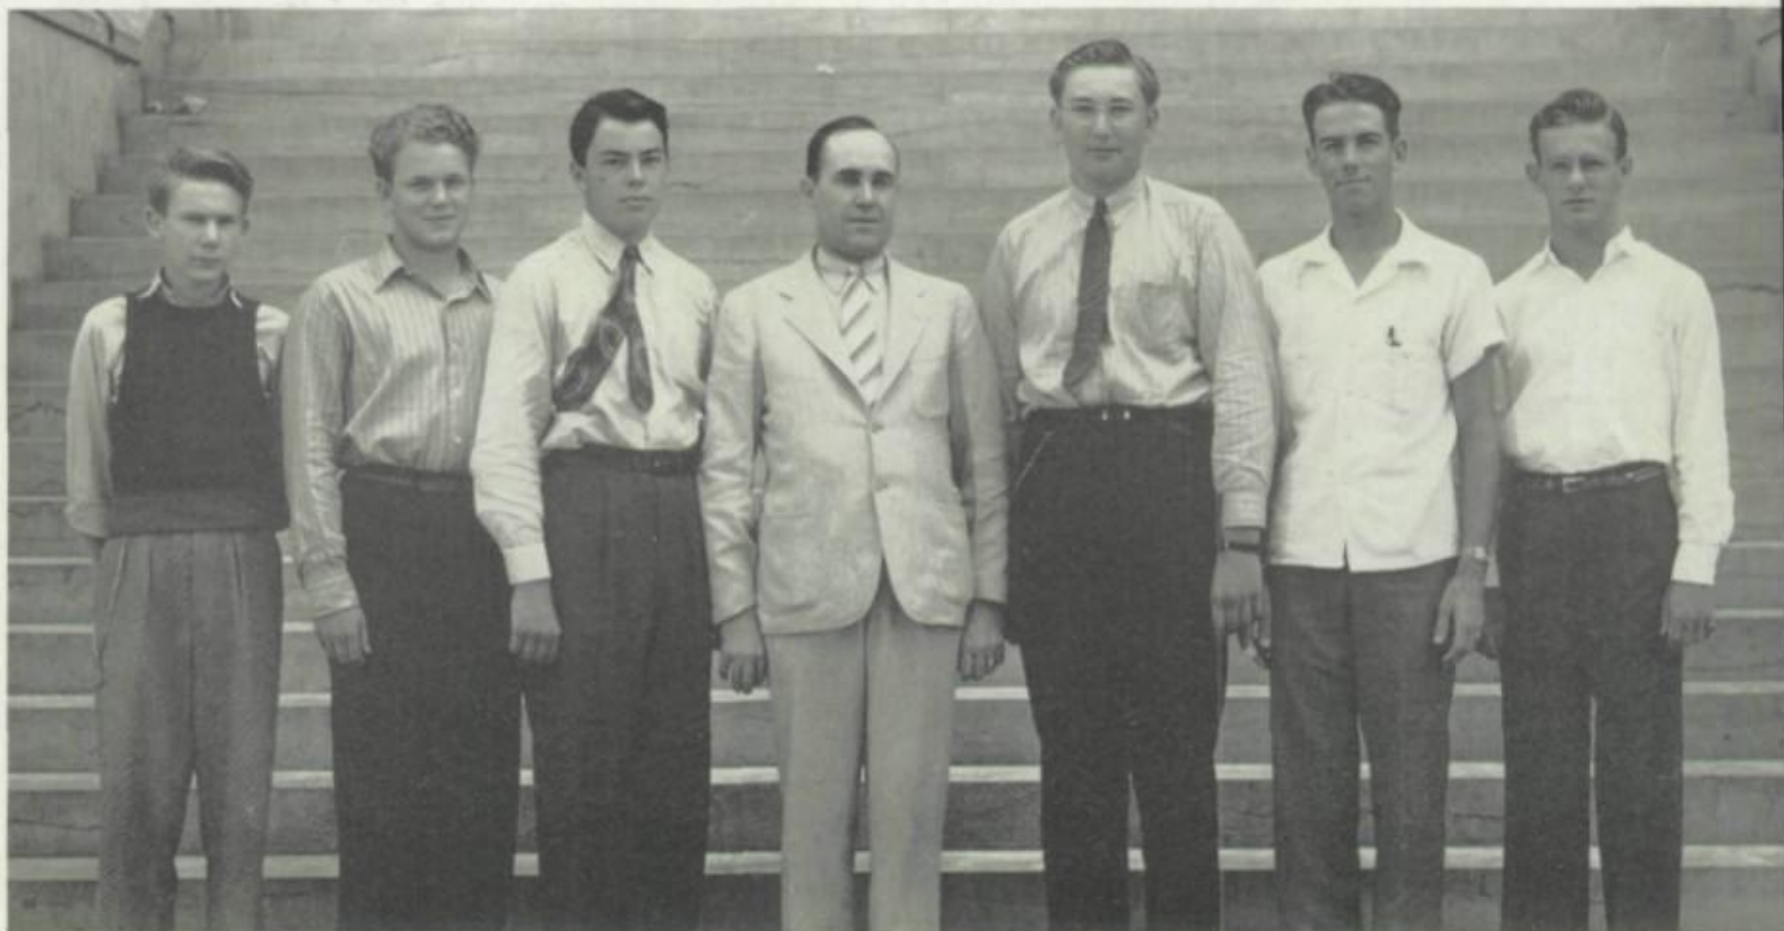

Led by Lewis Hall, captain, the racket-wielding Braves won first place in the Oklahoma Six conference; third at the Winfield, Kansas, invitation meet; and third at the Oklahoma A. and M. college invitation meet.

Boys who were awarded letters in tennis include Bill Bates, Randall Clark, Marvin Douglas, Lewis Hall, Burford Monnet, and Gene Small.

Golf

With Grady Skillern as coach and Robert Klein, captain, Central's golf team finished the 1940 season winning five of the six dual contests and placing in two state meets.

The Braves won second place in the Oklahoma Six conference and third in the Oklahoma University invitation meet.

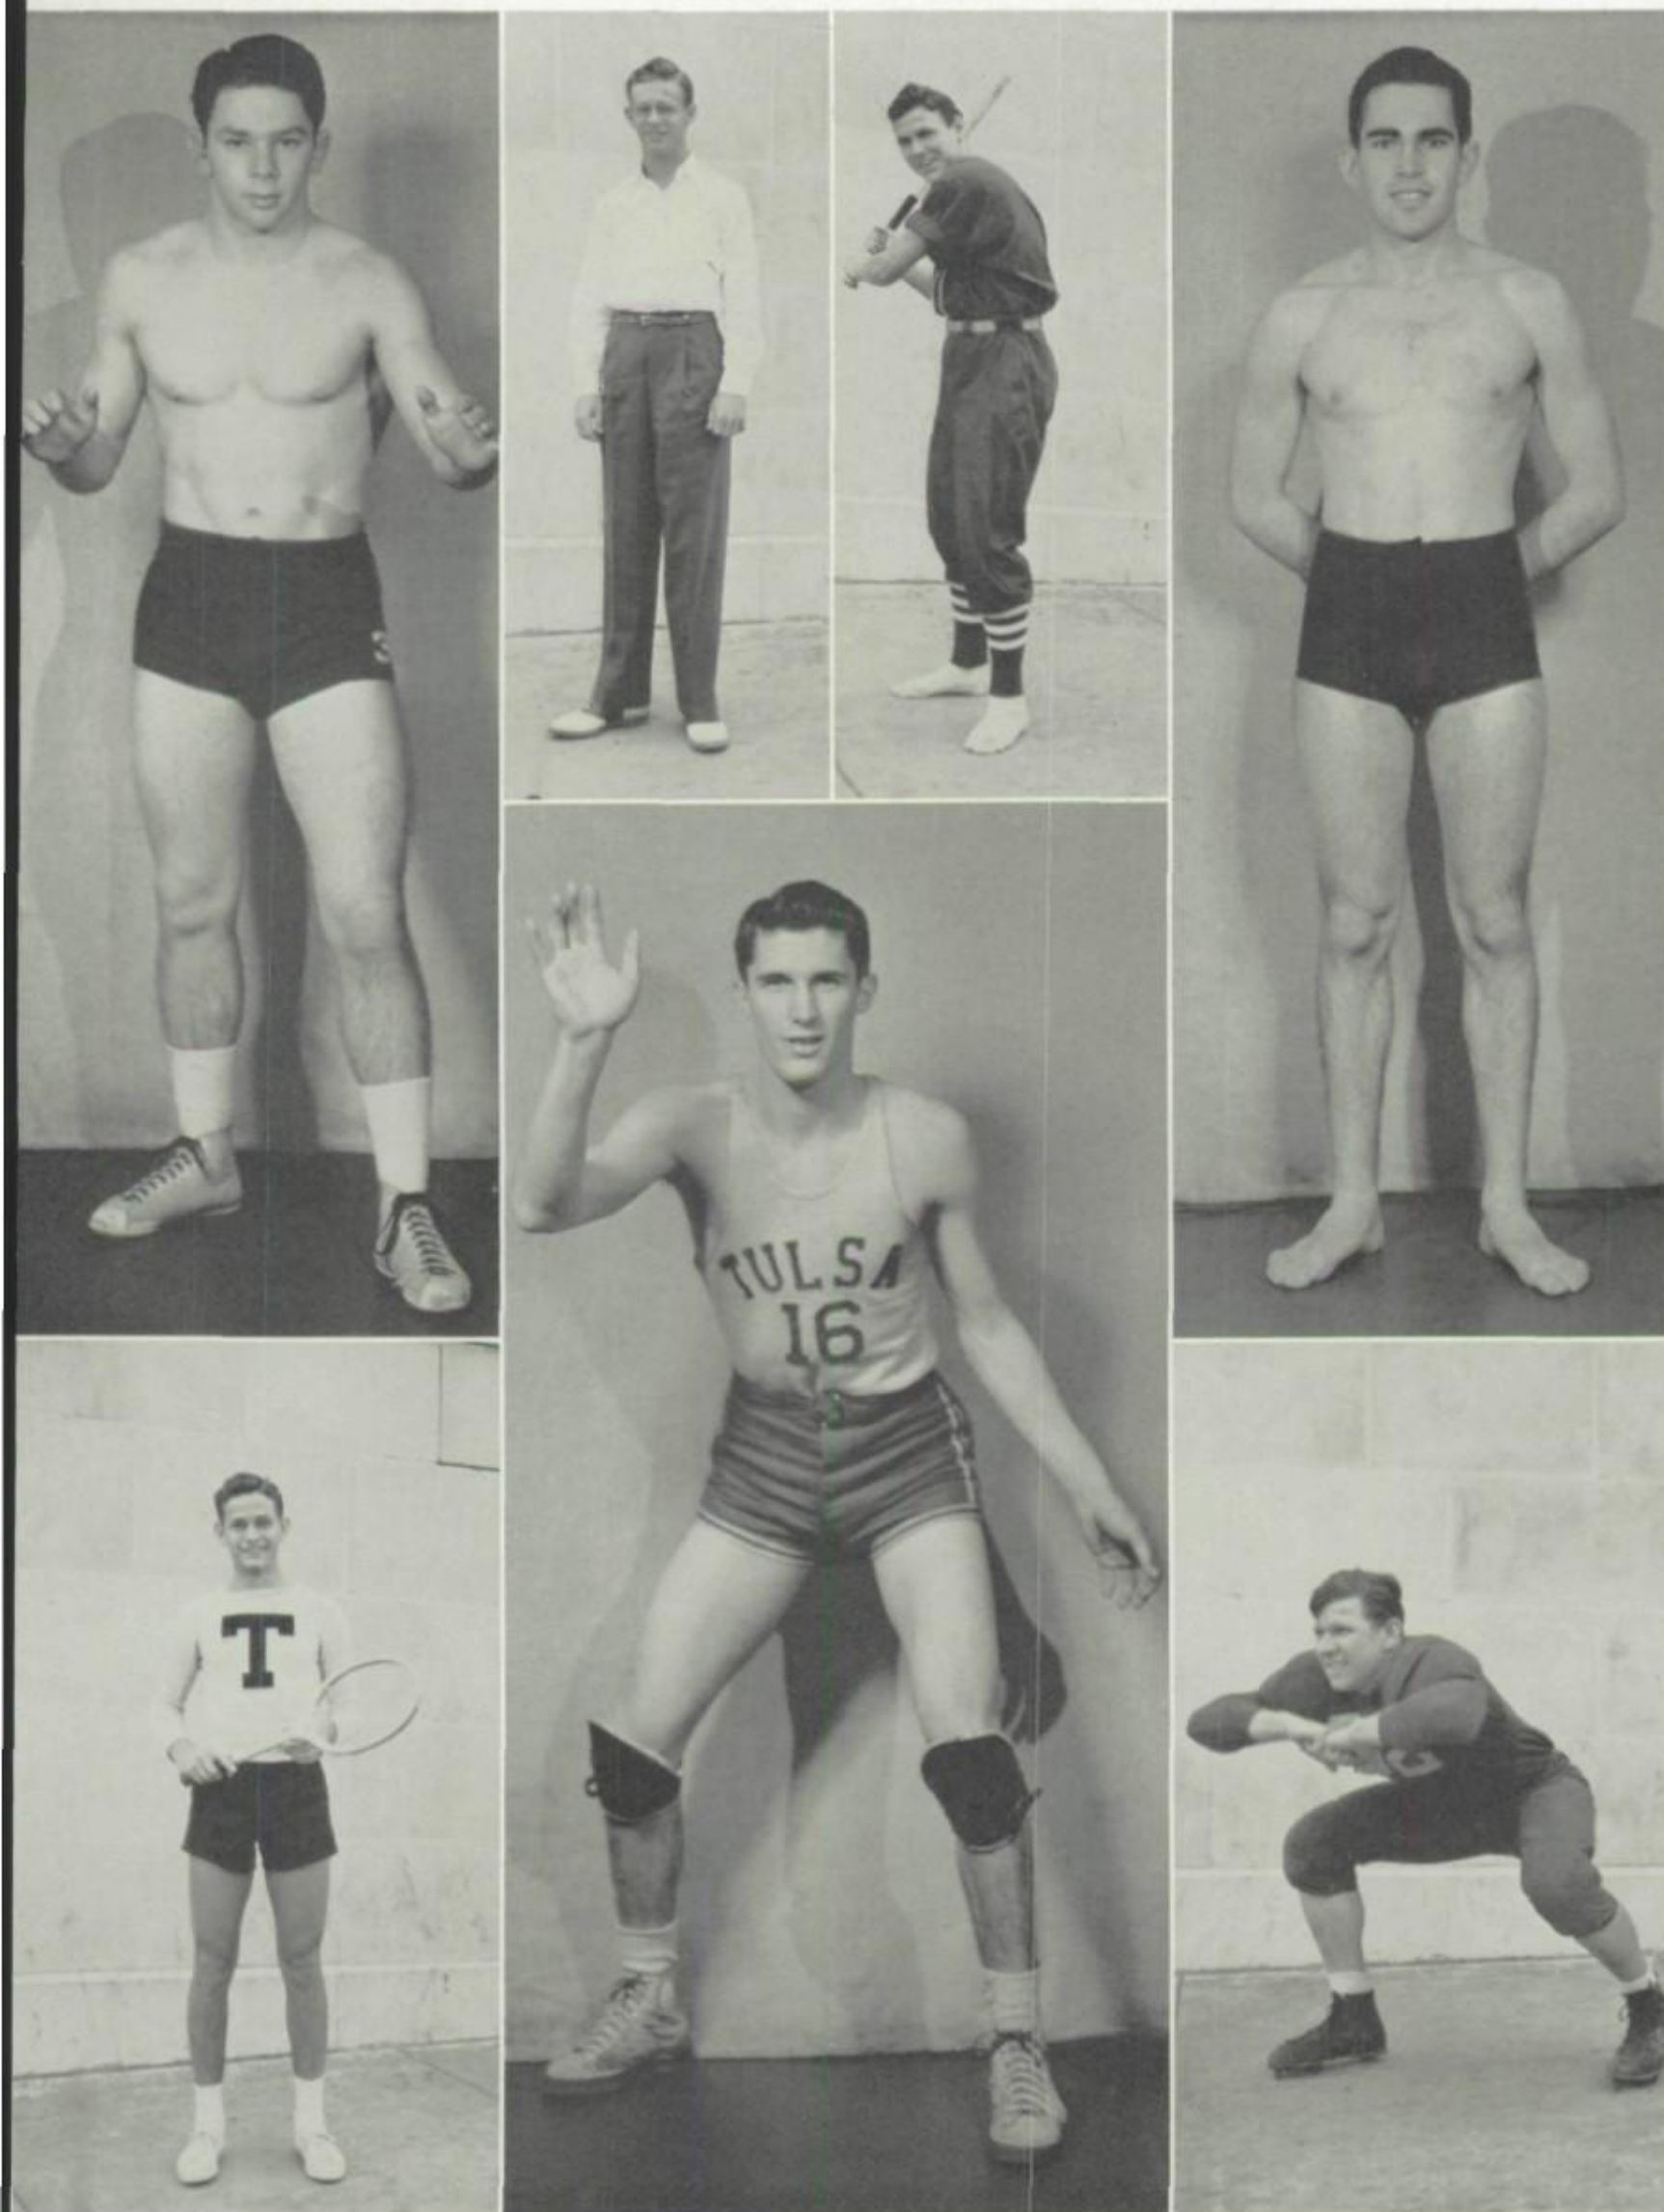

Individual honors at the University of Oklahoma meet were carried off by Tom Berend who won a gold medal for taking first place in the distance driving competition.

Lettermen included Tom Berend, Douglas Bourne, J. B. Kibler, Robert Klein, Bill Phillips, and Kenneth Woodard.

SENATE

The Central way is the American Way, and in 1920 in visualizing a government in which students might participate, Centralites decided to organize a body of universal student representation.

Organized under the guidance of Mrs. Louise Whitham, and today sponsored by T. W. Coover, the Senate has become an influential link between students and faculty members.

This year, under the leadership of Joe Johnson, the Senate, together with the House of Representatives, sponsored the 1940 convention of the Southern Association of Student Government, which brought more than 300 delegates from fourteen states to Tulsa.

Because of their participation in school affairs, Central students understand and practice those principles of self-government which characterize their national model.

FIRST AMERICANS

Sleepy Senators hurrying to meeting at 8:00 o'clock on Friday mornings, found the lively debates and stirring orations a sure cure for sleeping sickness.

Among the most important accomplishments of the Senate this year, was the organization of a Judiciary Committee to determine the constitutionality of disputed bills.

Senate members this year were particularly proud of their knowledge of parliamentary law and of Robert's Rules of Order, and they let no occasion for displaying this knowledge slip by them.

Composed of two representatives from each high school organization, together with the presidents of those bodies, the Senate typifies that democratic principle of attainment through cooperation.

COLUMBUS DISCOVERED AMERICA, 1492

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Receiving its membership from elected home room representatives, the House of Representatives completes Central's bicameral student government system.

With sincerity, future presidents and statesmen argue furiously over rules and regulations with the idea of aiding Central and hoping that the ultimate outcome will be a better understanding of people and their actions.

Organized in 1925 by the Senate when the need for a more complete representation of the student body became apparent, the House is officially known as the lower house of Central's student government. This year through the brilliant leadership of Bob Park, the House has been keeping the Senate busy, looking to its laurels.

SPIRIT OF '76

FIRST ROW—Barbara Lemmon, Evelyn Bates, Wanda Cates, Kolean Kent, Beverly Kelley, Kathryn Harting, Gloria Pope, Betty Price, Dorothy Davis, Jack Woods. SECOND ROW—Hugh Klein, Bob Woodward, Nick Kondos, Robert Huff, Tom Nesbitt, Joan Seale, Marilee Overmiller, Virginia Johnson, Harriet Wilson, Robert McAfee. THIRD ROW—Gordon McCune, Garvin Berry, David Womble, Eugene Johnston, Jack Ware, Richard Adams, Bob Park, Mary E. Campbell, Edward Bunch, Evan McElhany. FOURTH ROW—Jimmy Ayers, Harold Wright, Tom Bradley, George McBee, Kenneth Jorns, Phil Adrean, Jerry Biddison, Jack Ratcliffe, Tom Schark, John Harley, Mrs. M. M. Summers, sponsor.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

One of the most worthwhile projects to come out of the House this year, was the publication of the House Journal. Under the fostering hand of Richard Adams, the Journal expanded after a few months of publication and now gives information about both the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Through the Journal, students have the opportunity of knowing what happens in the meetings and what bills and legislative proceedings are being considered. In this way, representatives to the House and Senate may vote according to the views and wishes of a well-informed student body.

With Mrs. M. M. Summers, sponsor, present to allay the qualms arising from interpretations of the ever-changing Constitution, president Bob Park constantly reminds committee chairmen to keep on their own toes as well as on the toes of everybody else, in order to build a bigger and better House of Representatives.

GIRLS LEAGUE

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The Girls' League at Central has completed its sixth year as one of the school's leading organizations. Sophomore, junior and senior girls have separate organizations.

Duties of the officers are to assist in planning assembly programs for girls. These provide the one available opportunity for girls in each class to meet each other. The league has as its purpose promoting closer fellowship, encouraging desirable traits of character and developing pleasing personalities. Realizing that the American Way is a cooperative way, the three groups work harmoniously together.

Cabinet meetings are held when needed with presidents June Goodnow, Jean Harrington, and Helen Webster directing the activities.

The Girls' League is under the faculty supervision of Mrs. Minnie Mae Summers, dean of girls. She has guided the girls in their varied activities which include programs featuring outstanding speakers, Christmas baskets, and Mother's Day telegrams.

COURTESY SERVICE CLUB

COURTESY SERVICE CLUB

When President Richard Daugherty calls the meeting to order and Secretary Mildred Goodrich steps up to read the minutes, another meeting of the Courtesy Service Club is in progress. M. M. Black, assistant principal and sponsor of the C. S. C., is always present to give a helping hand. Thomas Berend is vice president, and Jack Stem and Gale Fitzwater are senators. Six captains, who check the attendance each hour are Betty Hawthorn, Bob Forche, Ruby Wise, Dorothy McNutt, Richard Daugherty and Mildred Goodrich.

A student may become a member either by application or invitation. He must be making passing grades in all subjects and must have a citizenship record beyond reproach. If any member shows a poor attitude toward the club and its ideals or has questionable citizenship, the cabinet, composed of officers and group leaders, will decide upon his membership.

FIRST PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION

COURTESY SERVICE CLUB

History of the Courtesy Service Club dates back to 1925 when the organization was formed with L. W. Laven-good, then dean of boys, as sponsor. F. J. Reynolds and J. B. Erwin have served since, and M. M. Black has sponsored the club since 1935.

The members meet once every two weeks. This year, for the first time, one-half credit a semester is given all mem-bers. That they deserve this for their efficiency will be agreed to by many well-meaning students who have been caught trying to sneak in the cafeteria or to visit lockers in class time. There is a C. S. C. post in the corner of every floor and at every door. Everyone going in or out of the building or anyone who wants to go to his locker must have a pass.

GOLD RUSH, 1849

FIRST ROW—Kathryn Linn, Mary Evelyn Otto, Virginia Razzy, Dorothy McNutt, Arliss Jean Harman, Alpha Grace Wilson, Louise Hudson, Helen Simerly, Ruth Stoner, Ruth Austin, Richard Daugherty. SECOND ROW—Jack Stem, Mildred McGovern, Barbara Loy, Mary Joan Ralls, Julia McPhail, Melvine Jensen, Josephine Vance, Josephine Jones, Jerry Feenberg, Jack Fette. THIRD ROW—Patsy Mangan, Peggy Granger, Doris Hendricks, Joyce Whitener, Jean Martin, Frances Barton, Doris Squires, Ayvonne Allen, Jean Starkweather, Bob Call, Thomas Chase. FOURTH ROW—Thomas Barnett, Thomas McCune, Jack Moss, Eugene Pullin, Lloyd Bicking, Bill Hawk, Bill Sterne, Tom Berend, Bob Carmack, Hayes Hoff, Neal Hughes, Raymond Barney, Joe Pitt.

COURTESY SERVICE CLUB

The value of this organization can hardly be estimated; it means that Centralites know orderly days rather than chaotic ones. Members give their service without thought of reward or tribute. The high standards they maintain may be visualized as one reads the purpose and the goal they have set for themselves in their constitution, "The purpose of this club is to render service to our high school; to promote good fellowship among students and between students and faculty members; to develop qualities of leadership and to insure high ideals in student affairs; and to encourage and promote student participation in school government."

To all C. S. C.'rs, past, present, and future, we give a salute. Your club has a fine record and each and every one of you has done his best to add to it. The future members have something in which they can place their confidence and work ever upward.

LINCOLN-DOUGLAS DEBATES, 1858

T-CLUB

T CLUB

The proud bearers of Central's insignia of honor—the members of the T Club—sailed into a new year with master-mind Myron Kratzer as president. Under his guidance, Central's brain trusts peddled enough pennants to buy food for the poor children at Christmas. Energetic Endres took over for the second semester, and under his leadership the T Club kept its proper place as one of Central's most outstanding organizations.

As is the case in every democratic society—when the leaders unite and cooperate big results may be expected. The T Club was organized with that idea in mind and it has done much to strengthen and improve Central's democracy.

SPEAKERS BUREAU

In case some Centralites have been wondering why the building is always so much warmer on Monday and Tuesday mornings—it's because Speakers Bureau is holding a meeting and the hot air simply seeps out of room 222. The meetings are scheduled for 8:00, and always start immediately with the arrival of President Nesbitt at 8:30. After the flag salute and the opening prayer, Central's mighty orators improve their speaking ability by debating such weighty problems as "Who's Yehudi?"

This year, more than ever before, Speakers Bureau's brainy blowhards have participated actively in community affairs—for there has been a constant call for high school students to address the civic organizations. Favorite topic of the year was "Americanism"—it was the theme of nearly all outside speeches and most of the regular programs.

OPEN DOORS AT HULL HOUSE

ADVERTISING BOARD

ADVERTISING BOARD

Central's super salesmen—those dynamic personalities who make up the Advertising Board—have scored again. This year—inspired by the leadership of Jim Alexander and by the stirring pep talks of that powerful propaganda peddler, J. Roy Inbody—the members of the Advertising Board fairly outdid themselves in helping to make a success of such projects as the opera, the Parent-Teacher Association book review, Brown-Dunkin Day, the speech arts plays, and, above all, the Daze.

Since its organization the Advertising Board has proved itself invaluable in Central's set-up. Composed of volunteers who are chosen for their outstanding personalities and for their interest and ability—their unselfish donation of time and talent serves as an excellent example of that cooperation which is so necessary in a democratic organization.

THE PIONEER AMERICAN WOMAN

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Courtesy, friendliness and consideration for others might well be the theme of the Girls' Athletic Association. They have pleasant associations, and they learn the importance of cooperation at all times.

The G. A. A. was organized to promote athletics in Central for girls. This year the organization sponsored the intramural program, as usual. These were double round robin tournaments held in hockey, basketball, and softball. After each tournament a spread was held; the hockey spread at Mohawk, the basketball banquet in the Central cafeteria, and the softball picnic at Parthenia.

The club members agreed to hold one activity each month on Saturdays. With this plan, more publicity could be given to the event and more girls could become interested in the program. Their varied activities included a swimming party, hikes, picnics, and overnight trips.

RED FEATHERS

October 2 was a memorable occasion in Red Feather and Central history, for on that date a challenge was accepted from the Rogers Dudes by the Central Red Feathers. Later a similar challenge was made and accepted from a representative of the Webster Warriorettes. Because of the victory of Central's outstanding Braves, the Red Feathers won the challenges and received the Dudes' hat and the Warriorettes moccasins as victory tokens. An annual event is the presentation of flowers to the Central queen at the coronation ceremony by the Red Feathers.

Officers this year were Martha Jane Gittinger, president; Jayne Willcockson, vice president; Peggy Landers, secretary; Mary Jane Hooker, treasurer; Mary Margaret Jackson, Helen Johnson, Senators; Mildred Bradford, Dorothy Crosswell, sergeant-at-arms; Mary Elizabeth Hutchinson, representative to the stunt committee; Nota Johnson, head cheer leader. Her assistants were Mary K. Williams and Jo Seitz.

FOURTH ROW—Betty Lou Hardin, Blodwen Roberts, Marcia Reed, Laurretta Teeters, Betty Hood, Norma Upson, Mary Lewis, Marcheta Enochs, Pearl Shea, Mary Otto.

RED FEATHERS

The Red Feathers, completing their second year, have a marvelous record behind them. Taunted by the Scalpers, and confronted by the problems of starting a large club and making it successful the Red Feathers now feel that they have overcome most obstacles and have established themselves.

Their pride and joy, the drill team, directed by W. W. Graham, marched in the all-school parade and in the Armistice Day parade.

One of the foremost activities was the participation in the between halves stunt at the Webster-Central game. Albert Martin, stagecraft manager, took a technicolor movie of this event which was shown at the two schools. Their ability to finish what they've started, their determination to make it right, their splendid cooperation, all indicate that the American Way is the Red Feathers' way.

SPIRIT OF '76

FIRST ROW—John Stapler, Jack Moncrief, Edgar VanEman, Bill Cardin, Jack Bleuler, Ned Truex, Edwin S. Taylor, Robert Humphreys, Jim Brizendine, Charles Choteau, Harold Mathis. SECOND ROW—Dan Rogers, Fred Van Horn, Bill Nelson, Glenn West, Bill Bird, Arthur Nedom, Earl Markwell, Jim Templeton, Bat Shunatona, Bobby Conger, Frank Rowell. THIRD ROW—Orville Hendrix, Edward West, Jack Osborn, Jack Barry, Jesse Welch, Fred Daman, R. M. Johnson, Stephen Dearth, Richard Howser, Terry Waugh, Don Palmer, Jimmy Sinclair. FOURTH ROW—Bill Dixon, Bob Endres, Milton Emmons, Jack Stem, Jack Moore, Paul Evans, Charles Semke, Brady Steil, Dick Moncrief, Martin Underwood, George McBee, George Murray, Russell Andrews.

Members of the Scalpers, indispensable boys' pep club, go about their jobs at Central in the true American Way. These red-shirted creatures participate enthusiastically in all their activities, whether it be yelling their lungs out at a football game, acting as ushers at school dramatic productions, or carrying on their traditional, but ever-weakening, feud with the band boys.

This year they entered into an even closer cooperation with the Red Feathers, girls' pep squad, in adding color to the all-school parade, and to the coronation of Miss Central High XX.

Working with the Red Feathers, and with the Webster and Rogers pep groups, the Scalpers participated in the presentation of one of the most outstanding feats of the year — the formation of an American flag between halves of the Central-Webster football game.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE-1776

Under the sponsorship of Delbert Emery, and presided over by Jack Bleuler, the Scalpers, this year, climbed to even greater heights in prominence at Central and became even more influential in student activity.

The Scarlet Shirts are almost a permanent fixture at Central and may be seen nearly every day in the halls; and in the fall, open season on pledges arouses much excitement. Though to become a full-fledged Scalper it is no longer necessary to wear one's shirt and tie backwards, a hapless push-a-peanut-with-your-nose pledge may—even in this modern age—be encountered.

No athletic, scholastic, or dramatic event at Central would be complete without the aid of the red-blooded (at least, red-shirted) Scalpers, one of the organizations which serve to promote the American Way in our high school.

STUDENT CUSTODIANS

Centralites can thank the Student Custodians for the clean halls and classrooms which surround them, for these boys work an average of four hours a day keeping Central neat and healthy.

This year the annual contest to determine by points the best all-round member was conducted with more vigor than ever before. Encouraged by sponsor Earl Sanders, the boys fairly outdid themselves in an effort to keep their original 1,000 points from decreasing because of errors on their part.

At the semi-monthly meetings, president John Jacobs leads the boys in planning ways of improving this vital service to Central, and at social events he again leads all members in having the most fun possible.

STAGECRAFT

STAGECRAFT

Changing scenery between acts of the plays, working with the settings, directing proper lighting and preparing the stage for productions of all kinds, are some of the assignments of the Stagecraft Club.

The boys work before and after school and at night. An accurate record of each boy's work is kept, and one credit is given for 120 hours of work.

Under the leadership of Albert Martin, each member learns accuracy, quietness, dependability, and the ability to take orders.

To become a member of the Stagecraft organization, a boy must have passing grades, serve a term of probation totaling thirty hours of work, and have an application approved by the other members of the club.

But all is not work, for the boys enjoy their duties and also have many good times.

A CAPPELLA

With his best foot forward and a friendly smile on his face, the A Cappella Choir's president, Bill Wolfe, took charge of the choristers, with Betty Butcher to help him in making this year's choir outstanding. Dainty Mary Hughes was in charge of taking roll and keeping track of the expense account. Bill Cardin and Lee Golden were held responsible for the choir's library while Jane Woolbert and Jeff Daniels attended the weekly sessions of the Senate to represent their fellow members.

Under the leadership of Gerald Whitney, the A Cappella Choir this year has set up new standards for choirs which will come after, and has accomplished something of which Central can well be proud—making people happy.

A CAPPELLA

Personal sacrifice for the greater profit of all is an ideal of democracy which is exemplified by Central's A Cappella Choir. This year the organization was able to make an important trip to Wichita for a national music conference, however because Central's Daze was scheduled for the same dates as the conference, members of the choir decided to give up the trip and remain in Tulsa for the Daze. This is a good example of that unselfish spirit which makes America what it is today.

All Centralites enjoy the sight of the maroon robes ready to give forth with music, and this year more than ever, the choir has made itself conspicuous through its appearance in assemblies and through its part in the Christmas Pageant.

CAMARATA

LINCOLN-DOUGLAS DEBATES, 1858

Living up to the meaning of their name, Camarata, which means comradeship, is a large order for the members of that organization. But this year they have succeeded admirably for through the proceeds of their annual Christmas card sale, they were able to give a considerable sum to student aid.

As versatile and charming Harriet Wilson raps for order, the girls try to stop their chattering long enough to dispense with the business of the day before planning their next party.

For four years under the able guidance of Miss Esther Larson, the Camarata club has fulfilled its primary purpose—that of spreading interest in student welfare.

ST. CECILIANS

SAINT CECILIANS

Music has an astounding effect upon groups of people; it brings them together as no other force can, and unity is what America needs in order to succeed. The Saint Cecilians have certainly contributed to unifying, not only Central but the whole city of Tulsa as well.

The Saint Cecilians have sung before civic clubs and student assemblies and have added much to the culture and entertainment of Centralites. This year more than ever, their April recital was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to attend.

Sybil Porter has presided over the 1941 glee club with Betty White helping. Joan Cleveland has kept track of the absentees, and Joan Knollenberg has guarded the funds.

WOMEN SUFFRAGE

OPERA CLUB

FIRST ROW—Jean Lively, Phyllis Bickel, Jayne Willcockson, Crocha Kudlemeyer, Lila Long, Betty Williams, Lois Whitesell, Jean Parker, Virginia Hagemier, Betty Swan, Joan Milnes, Jackie McNutt. OPERA CLUB

To make the best of one's talents is one of the main ideas of today's American youth. To give youth a chance to find and develop their possibilities which may later lead to a career is one of the main purposes of the club.

The Opera club made its first appearance this year singing the Ballad for Americans. They followed with another success by singing in the Messiah for the Christmas pageant. The year ended with the presentation of their annual opera, Countess Maritza.

With enthusiastic Betty Roark as president, Marvin Roberts taking over when Betty wasn't there, Peggy O'Bannon counting members absent, and Telva Briley keeping the money, Opera Club has completed one of the most fun-packed and successful years of its existence at Central.

TULSA SCHOOL LIFE

THE PIONEER AMERICAN WOMAN

If you've ever been in a large business office when a long awaited order comes through, then you have a remote idea of the condition of the publications office on almost any Tuesday morning. It has been said that it's the only place where New Year's Eve is every day.

They also say that it takes some first class cooperation to publish a paper in the midst of this hilarity. Cooperation? You bet! And those School Lifers really know what the word means because cooperation plus a good time by all equals the T. S. L. A. W. (Tulsa School Life American Way). Some formula, eh what? But it works splendidly.

TOM TOM

TOM TOM

I expect you've seen the Tom Tommers dashing hither and yon in search of a name to match the handsome countenance gracing this or that page. It was a pretty big job so, if the name by your picture is Joseph Graeme and your name is Matilda Something-or-the-other, please don't blame the staff. Just tell yourself it must have been due to the noisy place wherein they worked. Which, incidentally, shows more relationship to the percussion section of an orchestra than it should.

No, that wasn't a maniac. That was only our Super-man photographer, who saved the day for Tom Tom's budget by racing over hill and dale to secure a plentiful supply of snapshots.

TULSA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Members of this year's Tulsa Historical Society are using and revising textbook material compiled last year from researches made by students of the two preceding years. In this way members of the organization learn many facts about the city that average Tulsan has not discovered.

Founded in 1937, the Society, sponsored by Mrs. Louise Whitham, has grown in numbers and popularity, and it has won both state and national recognition.

Since this is a curricular organization, four classes are held during the day, each with its own officers. Executive officers are Robert Humphreys, president; Roy Harris, vice president; Mary Beth Walsh, secretary; James Hill, treasurer. Senators are Beverly Crawford and Ray Goodwin.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

In developing their philosophy that the American Way includes a wide knowledge of the interests and ideals of other nations as well as their own, members of the International Club feature in their regular programs talks by men and women versed in international affairs. Round table discussions by students add variety to the meetings.

Led by capable Kitty Orth, president, and James Blakemore, faculty adviser, the club this year has sponsored the sale of lecture tickets and at spare moments, members have sold candy in the north corridor.

Social events have included informal teas at which members have learned to know each other better, and the annual spring picnic for new members.

SPRIT OF '76

GIRL SCOUTS

GIRL SCOUTS

Probably in no activity is the American Way more aptly illustrated than in the Girl Scout club for its members fill their days with good deeds, good times, and communion with nature.

Members of the Trefoil troop like best to go for week-end camping trips to Camp Scott, which was started by a donation of twelve acres by Mr. J. H. Scott. Additional acres were given later by Mr. Scott and members of the Cooperative Club.

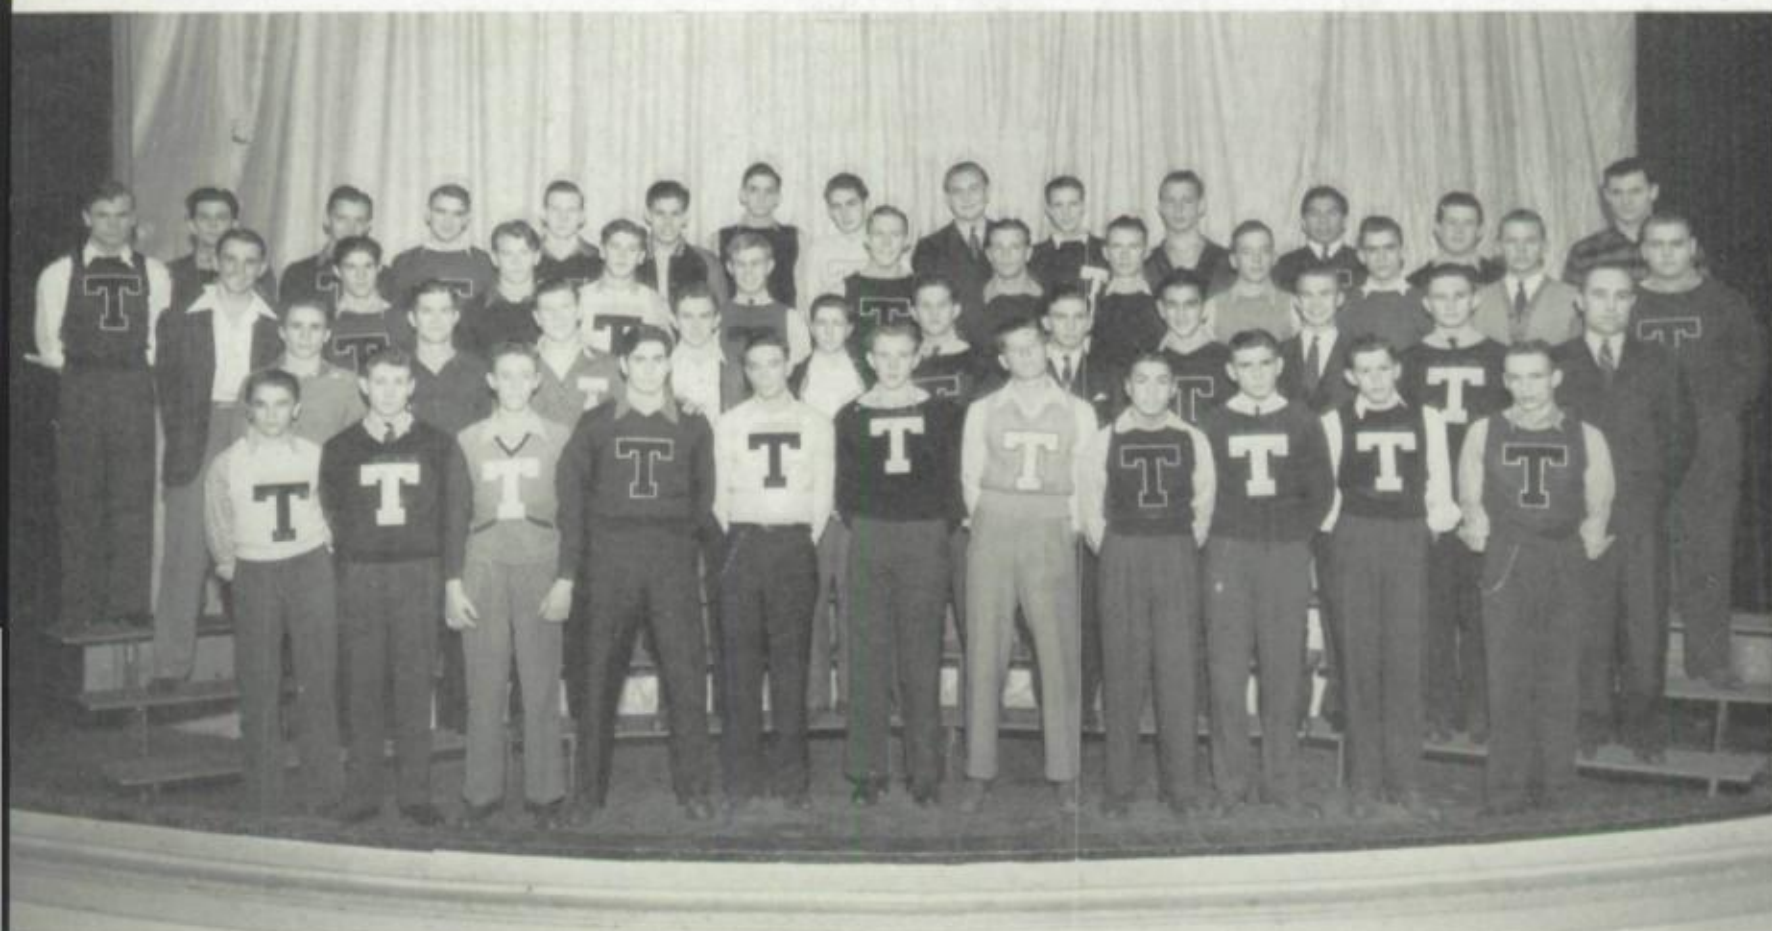

Some of the girls' projects this year have included aiding the babies' milk fund and helping the Red Cross in office work.

Imogene Ellis presides over the regular Tuesday meetings after school. Mrs. D. O. Thrift is the adult sponsor.

LETTERMEN

That additional clatter heard in the corridors on Thursday mornings is nothing to be alarmed about, for it is only the Lettermen having their meeting.

Central boys become members of this organization by establishing an outstanding record in some field of athletics.

Sponsor Grady Skillern is always on hand to help the Lettermen in their plans for various events, while Jack Lairmore presides and Glen Burgeis struggles through the ordeal of roll call.

Each year this organization sponsors a banquet, at which it plays host to all the athletic teams of Central, Webster and Rogers high schools.

FOURTH ROW—Charles Banfield, Paul Jones, Ella Mae Conrad, Janice Edgerton, Anna Mae Miller, Patsy Hough, Rosemary Conger, Jo Davenport, Charles Hawkins, James Smith, Earl Hall, Evelyn Prosser, coordinator.

COOPERATIVE DISTRIBUTIVE TRAINING

Recent occupational studies prove that the number of workers in various phases of merchandising has increased more rapidly than in any other major occupational field, and opportunities for employment in selling are greater than ever.

To students who possess the required personal and scholastic qualifications, Central, by means of its cooperative arrangements with Tulsa merchants, offers practical training in actual selling experience. These students enroll in Cooperative Distributive Training where they are placed, under direct supervision of the coordinator, in a Tulsa store on a part-time basis, and successful workers are offered continuous employment after graduation. The students spend part time in school in study designed especially to provide requirements for their jobs.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS TRAINEES

Juniors and seniors who have been selected for worthwhile jobs in business and industry under a cooperative plan of training are known as Central's Diversified Occupations Trainees. These students attend school half time and work half time on one or two plans. In one plan, the student attends school in the morning and works in the afternoon; in the other plan, he attends school full time for two weeks and works full time for two weeks.

Jobs for which the boys are being trained include: auto mechanics, boat building, building management, cleaning and pressing, circulation management, creamery work, cabinet making, foundry, forge, grocery store management, heat treatment, lumber and warehousing, machine shop work, office work, printing, pattern making, painting, radio service, rig assembly, and service station management.

ALPHA KEYSTONERS

ALPHA KEYSTONERS

Helping themselves to become true Americans by helping others, are Central's Alpha Keystoners.

With the leadership of Martha Appel, president; Charlene Milikan, vice president; Mignon Putty, secretary; and Margaret Rogers, treasurer, the Alphas work their hardest in providing toys, books, games, and furniture for the children of the Irving School Nursery—their project for the year.

Alphas are not in the least bit dull, however, for in addition to the work they pledge themselves to do, they find time to play. New members were brought into the organization with a bang when they were entertained by a circus party and pot-luck supper. Picnics, open houses, and dancing complete outside activities with meetings being made more enjoyable with moving pictures, lectures, games and informal discussions.

INDEPENDENCE HALL

ALPHA KEYSTONERS

The aim of all Keystone groups is to promote friendship among the members, and the Alpha chapter is particularly proud of its achievement along this line. Through the work of Jerry Raney, social chairman, and Connie Cook, membership chairman, new girls have been made to feel themselves a part of a live, friendly organization.

One of the surest ways for a girl to widen her acquaintance is to join the Alphas—for the lively meetings followed by dancing are an invitation to friendship.

A picnic at Mohawk, and an open house ended this year's numerous activities for the members of the organization.

BETA KEYSTONERS

Members of Keystoner's second oldest chapter can be found at the Y. M. C. A. any Monday night around 7:30 o'clock.

Kathryn Harting soon gets all the girls rounded up so that Betty Bush can read the minutes and Alice Van der Voort can call the roll.

The Betas had many worthwhile programs this year, including speakers and talent shows. A panel discussion on boy and girl relationships proved to be one of the most interesting programs of the year.

The dinner dance at the Christmas season was one of the year's outstanding activities.

BETA KEYSTONERS

Betas are fond of camping for there were more girls from Beta chapter at the Hi-Y-Keystoner training camps than from any other Keystoner group. The girls brought back many new and good ideas for programs, devotionals, and good times.

Beta Keystoneers once again entertained the Mexican children of Tulsa with their annual Christmas party. The girls say they have more fun than the little Mexicans.

Participating actively in the Go-to-Church Sunday each month is one of the goals which members of the Beta chapter have attained.

FIRST AMERICANS

DELTA KEYSTONERS

DELTA KEYSTONERS

With Julia Brant as their chapter sponsor, the Delta Keystoneers have successfully carried out their third year of existence.

Under the leadership of Ruth Parker, president, the Deltas have carried out a full program of social activities and charity work. Their project for the year has been furnishing toys and clothing for the children of the charity wards of the various hospitals.

Other functions have been buffet suppers, informal dances after football games and the annual Mardi Gras carnival. Interesting speakers such as Dr. McLeod of the University of Tulsa, who showed moving pictures taken in British Honduras, have been featured in the weekly Tuesday chapter meetings.

Through their self-governed meetings and their democratic ideals, the Delta Keystoneers do their best to carry out the Keystoneer motto: "To extend and maintain throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

WOMEN SUFFRAGE

GAMMA KEYSTONERS

GAMMA KEYSTONERS

Every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, the Gamma chapter of Keystoners starts another of its weekly meetings, presided over by Barbara Hall. Gamma has grown and had fun doing it this year.

For pure enjoyment who can think of anything more amusing than to steal a character from a famous comic strip and give a dance in his honor, such as an Adam Lazonga dance. Another of Gamma's successes was the bid dance held at the Akdar building and for still more pleasures the members have given pot luck suppers, more dances and slumber parties.

For their welfare project this year, the girls have supplied the negro hospital with a year's supply of sheets and linens.

In their motto, "God first, the other fellow second, and I am third," members of Junior-Senior Hi-Y show the spirit of true Americans. Meeting every Thursday, they have accomplished much this year under the leadership of their president, Paul Percival, and the sponsorship of Sid Cockrell, a Central alumnus. Starting its social program with a lucky formal dance, this chapter has participated in the Y. M. C. A. membership drive, in the election of the city officers for a day, and in many informal dances, parties, and picnics. One highlight of the winter was a combined box supper and tacky party.

Once a month members of Hi-Y and Keystoners attend church services together, and learn about the services of different denominations. With so many and such varied activities, all members count their time in the organization well spent.

DEMOCRACY IN EDUCATION

SIGMA HI-Y

SIGMA HI-Y

Regular weekly meetings, an occasional hayride, a sweetheart banquet, Y membership drive, charitable projects, parties packed with good times—these make up the year 1940-1941 in Sigma Hi-Y. The Friday the thirteenth dance and the football informals were especially successful, according to its president, Bill Meyers. Speaking of football, members are not likely to forget their own game with the Junior-Senior chapter, and the threats of unexpected haircuts after their victory. In that hilarious battle between the Mugwumps, Nutzies, and Dimwits, Sigma members took an active part. Proof of their efforts was their success in electing Bobb Balch to be mayor of the city for a day.

Among the serious activities were the candlelight inductions and attending church together the first Sunday in each month. Summer Training Camp is another enjoyable feature on the Hi-Y and Keystoner schedule.

Willey, Mrs. James Burnside, Mrs. R. N. Mooney, Mr. Eli C. Foster.

COLUMBUS DISCOVERED AMERICA, 1492

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION BOARD

One reason the Parent-Teachers Association functions with such success is because of the P.-T. A. board which plans all the general meetings, in addition to conducting the fall reception and the annual spring banquet.

The Parent-Teachers Association board is composed of the chairmen of all committees in the association.

So that parents may become acquainted with their children's school work, the yearly back-to-school night is held. The parents follow their boys' and girls' regular schedules after the opening assembly.

The feeling of friendship established among the parents, the teacher, and the students is invaluable, they believe, and the programs are designed to promote closer cooperation among those groups.

Where the Arkansas is winding, and the Osage Hills look down, proudly stands our Tul-sa

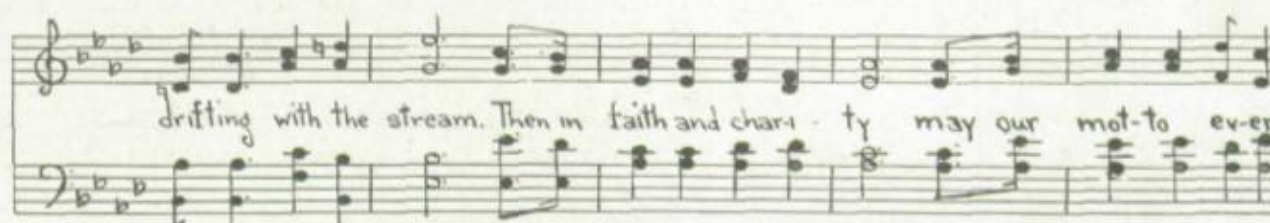

High School, bearing nation-wide re-noun, Its true bonds can ne'er be broken, nor its loy-al spir-it die, ev-er staunch we'll stand to geth-er, ev-er bound by mem'ry's tie chorus Let us now our voices raise in a joy-ful song of praise. For we love the Tulsa Spir-it-never drifting with the stream. Then in faith and chari-ty may our mot-to ev-er be, "Here's a heart for Tulsa High School, for the Crimson and the Cream"

Dearest Luke,
This is the first year I have known you as one of my best, best friends and honest to be the nearest thing to heaven I've ever known. Honest - we've had so damn much fun together & with our "lucky five" it's really just a sweet deal all around - we've all had some bad breaks in everything this year & I think mine is coming soon - but that won't matter too much & I'll probably live. We owe a lot to luck & we'll never forget that 'cause it's the thing that makes us winners - no foolier Jeanie Honey & all the luck & happiness in the whole darn world

I hope we'll always be together - forever even when there isn't any, any more - All my love Donohy

Luke

Here's to the "lucky fine and shady home" and I hope we will always be together. We had more fun this year than ever and it's because of the way we have all stuck together. No feelin you know how much I love you so I said need to try and express it. You're really tops on my list — and I hope we will always be that way. Hope this summer + next year will be as much fun as this year. Lots of luck on that "little deal" and don't ever give up ship. I love honey —

Words by
DORIS ALLEN

With thy vision light our eyes,
Show thy heights above,
Grant us wisdom, thou art wise,
Teach us thy great love
Consecrate our aim sincere
Cleanse each inmost soul
O Great Spirit, be thou near Distant shines the goal

For the beauty through each day
Joy and friendship true
Gifts of thine along the way
Hear our thanks anew
When we gain the farthest height
By thy wisdom taught
We shall find thee, truth and light
Thou art all we sought

Dear Jeanie

I've always liked and admired you an awful lot and I know I always will — !! You sure have been grand to me this year — I sure hope we get to be together this summer and next year — and almost any wonderful time I think of this year you're included in it

I'll just never say how much fun you are and how much I love you but just the same it's there !!

Considering The American Way of life from every angle, one might easily see that it begins at Central, a leader among schools.

As the Tom Tom Editorial Staff of 1941, it has been our aim to present The American Way of life at Central. For the assistance given in accomplishing this purpose we, the members, wish to express our sincere appreciation.

To the Board of Education, for making possible the publication of this book; to Miss Alphild Larson and the assembly program committee for the Tom Tom assembly; to Miss Ednamay Weeks and the senior class; to all those persons in the Board of Education Print Shop who have given so generously of their time and interest; to Mrs. Margaret Grebing, without whose timely assistance many of Tom Tom's records would be inadequate; to James Holder, for information about the department of boys' physical education activities; to the administration and to all departments of the high school for their encouragement and suggestions—to all these people the Tom Tom staff owes a debt of gratitude.

Harrington:
I'm doing great, alright, gal in school.
But, Jeanne, ol' kid we all think you're also the swellest. Really, Jean, I've certainly enjoyed this year & it's been swell knowing you.
Tom Flodgett

Better luck next time,
Harrington. Bob

Best of luck to one of the swellest gals I know. You've been a swell friend. You've been plenty successful in your campaign so keep up the good work and maybe some day, you'll be satisfied (?) I hope so.

Good luck,

Bob Donnelly

Dear Harrington
 You are one of the

Dearest Harrington,

I guess last summer when I was out in Calif. is really when our friendship grew and grew and grew. No Joolin we really got started then. I finally arrived home to find you waiting with open arms which really thrilled me and the last part of the summer we were inseparable. You introduced me to that sweet Billy and I in return to "Kay" only the other way - Tell that's just one important incident in our friendship - If I were to go through and write all the times you'd stuck by me and helped me through great big messes I'd be writing for weeks.

Remember the day - Frank and Bill both came over and were mad at me together - Then the night I broke up with Bill - The night of Rajah slumber party - All the times the folks have been mad at me - Times other people have been mad at me - and a million just such things - Everytime, I could count on you being right there behind me, still pullin with all your might. - you don't realize how wonderful it is to know I've got a friend like you. - I really "love you real much" - so much that words can't express it - But anytime I can ever do anything for you just let me know and I'll do it willingly -

you're really the "Top" of "my Hit Parade"
No. 1" - I mean really
all my love forever
Barnett
